SAID TO BE THE LAST.

The New Dodge Adopted by the New York Pickpockets.

From the New York Sun.
At Broadway and Duane street, on Saturday, the butt of a cigar lay on the sidewalk, and a thread of purple smoke went up from its ashes. A well-dressed man, wearing a silk hat that showed evidence of recent hard usage, was eyeing the half-consumed cigar, and was evidently making up his mind to recover it. He had every appearance of a drunken man. Keeping his eye on the butt, he straightened down over his eyes and stooped to reach the cigar, smiling complacently as he extended his hand toward the butt. In the meantime many persons had halted, and when the wind caused the cigar to roll away just as he was putting his fingers on it the knot of observers laughed. The man again straightened up and he frowned indignantly on those who were around him. He looked at the staff on the Western Union building, and up and down Broadway, as though in doubt whether he would again attempt to recover the cigar. Then he pulled his hat over his eyes once more, and renewed his effort. He fell on his knees, pitched over on his face, arose to his knees again, and pointed his hand over the coveted butt. The knot of observers had been increased tenfold, and bets were made that the cigar would again elude him.
Suddenly the interest of the throng was shifted in another direction. A man shouted, "Stop thief! I've lost my watch!" and a woman cried out, "cried that her pocketbook was missing. About this time the man who had been an object of so much interest, was also missing.
"Go on, go on," said a policeman to the crowd; "That's the latest trick."

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

There never was such a drought as the present one in Texas since it became a State.

From Oct. 26, 1867, to Sept. 30, 1879, the church property sold at auction in Italy yielded one hundred and nine millions of dollars.

"A pew for sale, commanding a beautiful view of nearly the whole congregation," is the wording of an advertisement in a Rochester paper.

A Chicago opera audience was kept waiting nearly an hour because Faust's red tights had not arrived, and he wouldn't go contrary to usage by wearing blue ones.

Six hundred Bulgarian orphans, who lost their parents by the last Russo-Russian war, were taken to Russia, where they were instructed gratuitously at the expense of the government.

The widow of James Fisk, Jr., boards at South Deerfield, Mass., with a couple who formerly were her coachman and cook. This is not an economical motive, however, for she has a handsome competence.

The disproportion of women to men in criminal records is exemplified in some statistics published by the Italian Government. During the past year the courts sentenced 41,555 persons, of whom 37,999 were men and only 3,556 women, and the police seized and condemned 7,544 men and only 383 women.

The employment of women in the telegraphic service in France on a larger scale has now begun at Paris, where 240 girls are now undergoing an apprenticeship of three months on trial. They are cheaper than men, getting only $200 a year, whereas men get $300 and $400. The girls are not expected to do night work.

Parkinson's Bond Filed.

From the Carson Appeal.

R. R. Parkinson, convicted of illegal voting and false registration in the U. S. District Court, filed a bond at half past 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the sum of $750, to guarantee the payment of his fine of $500 and costs of court, pending the carrying of the case to a higher court on a writ of error. E. J. Parkinson, Israel Crawford, H. M. Yerington and Lloyd Hill were his sureties. This grants the defendant a stay of execution until the case can be decided before Judge Sawyer, in the Ninth District Court.

How to Avoid Snow Blindness.

From the Times-Review.

The pain incident to snow blindness is perhaps as intense as any that was ever experienced by human beings. A very simple method of avoiding the injurious effect of the reflection of the sun's rays, upon the snow, is by blackening the cavities around the eyes. This can be done with a piece of coal for the charcoal end of a stick, and will be found fully as effective as colored glasses.

She Waited Eight Long Years.

Pittsburg (Pa.) Telegraph.

Eight years ago a man who was ready to be married was sentenced to the Western Penitentiary, and Thursday, when his long service ended, the faithful woman stood at the prison door to receive her lover, and where he found wedding garments which friends had provided. The ceremony was not delayed, and it is to be hoped that, after all, the woman received a husband worthy of her constancy.

Progress in Nevada.

From the Carson Appeal.

In 1878 the real and personal property taxed in the State of Nevada was valued at $28,246,010.39. This year the estimate is $38,786,047.37, an increase of $540,037.88. The figures speak well for the general prosperity of the State, and show that while some localities have fallen off in business and productions, others have sprung up whose prosperity has more than balanced the decline. In 1878 the tax was 90 cents on the $100, and the amount paid to the state was $253,433.95. Owing to a surplus of funds accumulated in the treasury, the rate was reduced to 55 cents on the $100, and the returns this year show $154,432.50.

The Paradise Reporter says: Not a fight has occurred in town for two weeks; not a "drunk" has been seen for the last forty-eight hours, and not a dog been killed for a month. Truly, the glory of George-Eye has departed, and her citizens seem to have lost all their energy.

The GAZETTE has twice as large a circulation as any other paper in Washoe county. Hence it is an excellent advertising medium.

POWNING AT A DISADVANTAGE.

"Neither the GAZETTE nor Chronicle shall willfully and maliciously publish any infamous, libelous matter without our giving them an opportunity to prove it, EITHER BEFORE A COMPETENT COURT OR AT THE MOUTH OF A SHOTGUN."

The above is from this morning's Journal, and the capitals are our contemporaries. It is surprising to find Senator Powning stating such an alternative as this. One might suppose that the gifted young statesman would rely upon his rare powers of persuasion, and dispose of the matter for good and all in a "competent court." But could there be found a court competent to try Mr. Powning? We believe that the sternest judge in the land could not but be biased by the Senator's eloquence, his youth and beauty, and, more than all else, his marvelous magnetic power.

There remains then only the other recourse—"THE SHOTGUN." From the Senator's reference to the "mouth of a shotgun," we infer that he means a single-barreled fowling piece. We have too deep a faith in the generosity of Senator Powning's disposition to suppose that he would surreptitiously discharge a load of shot into the person of the editor of the GAZETTE. No doubt the Honorable gentleman means to level his destructive fowling piece only after due warning shall have been given.

As all the firearms in the GAZETTE office are double-barreled, it is only fair to notify Senator Powning of the great disadvantage he would be under should the editor of the GAZETTE not fall at the first fire.

A DREADFUL AFFAIR.

The public at large, at least such as have never "bin to war," or otherwise been put in deadly peril, can form but a faint conception of the state of mind in which the editor of the GAZETTE labors to-day. Stepping off the morning train after a few days trip, grading lands for the Central Pacific railroad company, his mind filled with pleasant thoughts of home and breakfast, he saw a man flying to meet him with pale face, and trembling finger pointing to the ominous words—"mouth of a shotgun" in letters nearly a foot long in the morning Journal. Borrowing an umbrella to protect his manly form from the shower of shot from the big gun in the hands of "the pretty little blonde," he made his way to the home so soon to be made desolate. There he made a solemn vow never again to read the wicked papers which said "the diminutive senator ought to be tarred and feathered for his course in the legislature;" never more to listen when any one said "Yerlington was carrying a hundred shares of Sierra Nevada at 60 for him; never to listen when any body said his votes had anything to do with the new dress the Journal got the week after the session closed; never to listen to business men who say that he will go back on his word whenever it suits him. None of these things shall be mentioned or hinted as long as the shotgun policy lasts. The argument is so forcible and convincing, the application so neat and elegant, and the man behind the gun so famous for his military sagacity and courage that ordinary mortals might well quail before it. The man whom General Grant delighted to honor, and who delighted to honor General Grant, is not the person to allow anything like familiarity from ordinary scrub editors.

SHOTGUNS FOR TWO.

The Carson Appeal of yesterday makes the following reference to the editor of the Journal. Mr. Mighels, who now edits the Appeal, should prepare himself to face the mouth of the SENATORIAL SHOTGUN:

"Senator Powning has already begun to outline his course in the next Legislature, and the Chronicle alludes to his utterances as specks on the sun. Mr. Powning can hardly expect the people of Washoe county to place much faith in his promises, considering how outrageously he went back on his railroad pledges made to them last fall."

Holidays in 1880 on Sunday—Washington's Birthday, Decoration Day, July 4, and Christmas.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Senator! Vice President!! President!!! This last from the GAZETTE. To tell the truth we would rather draw $50,000 per year as President, than $3,000 as land-grader for the Central Pacific or any other railroad company.—Journal.

When the railroad company refuse to let a man peddle peanuts on the trains they are not very likely to offer him any position of trust or honor.

In one week in October seven persons were killed and thirty-four persons injured by being run over in the streets of London. One person was killed by a van, two by carts, two by cabs, two by omnibuses, and five by bicycles.

The eastern railroads are crowded with freight. The traffic over the Erie road was so great one day recently that there were sixty miles of heavily laden eastern bound freight cars in motion at one time.

The present snow-fall, says the Truckee Republican, renders the hunting of Arctic hares a favorite sport. Going out early in the morning, the hunter finds the hare's track in the new snow and has only to follow a little way before he comes up with the game. In a recent case of death from pneumonia in Bodie, after the examination of a number of witnesses the jury returned a verdict that deceased, Mark Farnell, a native of Toluca county, aged 38 years, died from pneumonia aggravated by gross neglect. It was recommended by the jury that the supervisors be requested to inquire into the manner in which the County Hospital is managed.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

New Castle (Eng.) Chronicle.

THE AMERICAN WAR.—The Chronicle of June 30th has the following extract of a letter from New York:—"Washington, the Congress, and all the rebel governors have rejected the terms held forth in the new Acts of Parliament, and will not treat but as independent States. The rebels grow saucier daily and make a joke of Lord North. They say the King cannot send more, and of course will leave them the country to themselves."

Another paragraph says that the Commissioners sent to America were paid a thousand pounds per month. In spite of the State of the Exchequer, the Ministry was evidently of a squandering disposition. The English army in America was in a "parious state." We read:

"The last accounts of the army under Sir William Howe make about 4000 British troops sick, and above as many more prisoners. The sick foreign troops were above 18,000, and above 2000 more of them prisoners."

AN ENORMOUS HEAD-DRESS.—At no period have ladies' head-dresses attained such enormous proportions as they did a century ago. The following story is told by the Chronicle:—"The other day a little lady with an enormous high head, passing through Tavistock street, a droll fellow of a journeyman carpenter took out his rule, and gently following the lady, measured her height from the top of her cap to her heel, and found that the cap measured exactly one-third of the whole."

It is stated that the engineers are averaging at the present time from $150 to $300 per month, and the foreman in a like ratio.

From the New York Sun, Nov. 8.

A good deal for St. Julian—a good deal for any horse, in itself considered—not much as compared with the performance of two of Mr. Bonner's horses, Rarus and Edwin Forest.

It is a little discouraging to California to know that, accepting its own tracks and timing to be correct, yet Mr. Bonner has two horses that have trotted faster than St. Julian.

California, usually is ahead on pears. Mr. Bonner has the pair this year. We hope some man already born will live long enough to see St. Julian come East and trot a mile—not in 2:12 1/4, but as Rarus has done, in 2:11 1/4.

Come on, California, and equal either of Mr. Bonner's two best, and then, but not before, do your boasting.

Shedding their Toes at Will.

Repugnance to military life has induced among the inhabitants of a certain village in the department of the Seine, the curious practice of atrophying one of the great toes by some secret method of muscular contraction which has baffled the scrutiny of the most experienced army surgeons. The deformation prevents the foot from being brought fully to the ground. With such success has this system of mutilation been carried on for the past forty years in one particular village, and so discreetly have the whole peaceful peasants kept their counsel, that in the whole period only three conscripts were drawn who were found able to march.

Match Billiard Playing in New York.

The highest run of Rudolph was 61 and that of Heison 56. The next game was between Carter and Daly, Daly winning by a score of 300 to 60. The winner's average was 18 1/2. Daly scored 52 as the highest run and Carter 16. Slosson and Garner played the next game, the former winning easily by a score of 300 to 68. The winner's average was 28 1-13. The highest runs; Slosson, 107; Garner, 35.

CAPITAL NEWS.

The Frou Frou Performance Postponed—What the Trouble Is—The Virginia Chronicle Discussed—A Joke About Hank Monk.

It is humiliating, when I was printing myself for a slashing criticism on Saturday's performance of Frou Frou, to be compelled instead to write an apology. Frou Frou is postponed one week, for causes which we know not of, but evidently potent. It was reported that there was an emente among the actors, which is not so; and it was supposed by some that a few were not "up" in their parts; this I know is wrong. "Dinna ye be speakin' o't" and I'll tell you the secret. Frou Frou is a society play; society dresses decolette, adding what is saved from the bust to the train, and trains require room to squirm in. Now the stage of our opera house is not as large as a circus ring, and in so contracted a space, especially when filled with stage furniture, there is very little chance for those evolutions necessary to a full display of that.

MOST UNGRACEFUL OF ALL APPENDAGES, when not allowed full swing—a train. In fact, when Miss Cavendish played here a week or two since, every moment she could spare from facial contortion and a display of somewhat voluptuous upper works, was devoted to that train, which, with a set of amateurs on the stage, would have been torn to ribbons in one evening. Here, then, is one hitch. It was probably discovered that there was no possible chance for three ladies, at least, all dressed on train, to evolutionize on the stage to any advantage; indeed, it was quite impossible, and so the stage must either be enlarged or the dresses curtailed. The former would require time to accomplish, and the latter was simple out of the question, and hence the postponement. How they will fix things up I cannot pretend to say; but it is promised that.

THE PLAY WILL CERTAINLY COME OFF one week hence. I am fearfully disappointed, for Mary Anne has had her hair in papers for two days, sleeping with open eyes, and now she must go through the process next week again, just on account of those trains, and the little petit souper which I had bespoken must remain untouched. Gods! how much hangs now and then on a yard of crinoline! You observe that the Virginia Chronicle has got a new text, and now there is rest for Powning and the Enterprise. The truth is that they had been twanged so long that they were becoming frayed, fortunately for the public and the strings. Grant spoke a little piece in Chicago the other day from MS. and the Chronicle jumped in.

AND NOW POOR GRANT SUFFERS. The trouble with me is how a paper made up of so many shreds and patches of political creeds can agree as "touching any one thing." The Chronicle is certainly a somewhat piebald concern—a cast of many colors—but somehow it keeps a solid front, and butts like a ram; and as the cat has not jumped quite in the line marked out by the Democratic press in the late elections, these fellows must fall back on "fraudulency" and "Cesarism" and "centralization," and like caged wild beasts continue to show their harmless fangs and give vent to the same yells which marked their freedom. The claws and yells are alike harmless, for the people are no longer to be frightened at false faces. It was rumored yesterday that HANK MONK HAD GONE CRAZY over the fact that Jasper Babcock had mutilated one of his jokes which he was trying to tell to a party at the Ormsby House. I interviewed Hank this morning, and found him all right, mentally, but he swears that next time Bab comes a pull like that over him there will be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of State. Como. CARSON, Nov. 14th.

Dewey & Co.'s Scientific Press Agency has received official notice of the issue of the following patents to Pacific coast inventors, for the week ending November 4th, 1919: 221,285, J. T. F., ear-ring; 221,346, R. O'Donnell, S. F., attachment for invalid beds; 221,186, S. Petty, Volcano, Cal., mechanical calculator; 7,706, F. Korbel & Bros., S. F., cheese, (trade-mark).

An Amputation Performed.

Dr. Dawson got home last night from Frederick Ritter's ranch in Washoe valley, where he had been attending Mr. Ritter, who accidentally shot himself last Tuesday. The charge took effect in his right arm above the elbow. Dr. Dawson was sent for and on his arrival, found that amputation would be necessary. He procured an assistant from Virginia and the operation was successfully performed. At last accounts Mr. Ritter was doing well.

A Lucky Fall.

A section man at Bronco fell under a hand car yesterday morning. Fortunately the wheels did not strike him, and by lying still the car passed over him and he suffered no injury.

JOTTINGS.

—The river is very muddy.
—Taxes are coming in lively. Monday is the last day.
—Remember that taxes will be delinquent after Monday.
—Joe Kennedy has some splendid rooms to rent. See 50 cent ad.
—There is a bad hole in the pavement in front of the Palace Hotel.
—The locomotives now go West with light snow plows attached.
—An assessment of twenty-five cents has been levied upon Black Hawk.
—A house and lot are offered for sale near the new school house. See ad.

—Quite a crowd attended the auction of household goods on Virginia street this afternoon.
—D. McFarland is putting down a fine crossing from the Arcade Hotel to the railroad platform.
—A. M. Wicks cut a bee tree at Bronco the other day and got 200 pounds of nice honey.
—Two fat deer were brought in from Sierra valley last evening and were displayed at the Truckee market.
—Parrott, the gunsmith, has a combined double barreled gun and rifle, that is quite a wonder of ingenious construction.
—County Treasurer Boyd says a gust of hot, foul air greets him every time he opens the door of the fireproof vault. The room is so tight that the air becomes dead.
—Senator Powning will address the Reform Club this evening, completing his address on "France." There will be music, readings and recitations as usual.
—About 500 hogs a month are brought into Nevada on the cars. They go mostly to Virginia. Very little pork is consumed there in summer, but in winter the demand is heavy.

"Susie, dear, did you see my hat?"
"No, my darling."

—Geo. Becker, of the Granite Saloon, gives a "spread" this evening. He has completed the inside work of the saloon and has a beautiful new bar in place. All the boys are invited to call around to-night and sample his beer and eatables.

An Elegant Residence.

Joe Kennedy is just putting in locks to a very creditable job on Second street. It is a two story and mansard roof dwelling, which he has built for his own home. There is an astonishingly economical use made of the room. The first floor has a hallway, a fine parlor with bay windows, a dining room, kitchen, bed room, and a little gem of a bath room. A stairway in the hall leads to the second floor, which is divided into five rooms with closets. The mansard will make three or four nice rooms. There are water and gas pipes on every floor. The finish both inside and out is good and Joe will have one of the handsomest homes in the Riverside town. May he long enjoy it.

How News Grows.

THE GAZETTE lately said that there were several persons in Reno who practiced "snuff dipping." The following items have since appeared:
Many Reno females indulge in snuff dipping.—Eureka Leader.
"Snuff dipping" is practiced extensively among the female elite of Reno.—Tuscarora Times-Review.
"Snuff dipping" is all the rage in Reno.—Bodie Free Press.

An Unexpected Arrival.

Mrs. Theresa Welch was a passenger on the west bound overland train last night, and thought she would stop over in Reno for a few days. She put up at the Depot Hotel and before morning gave birth to a fine boy baby. Mrs. Welch is from Deadwood and was going through to San Francisco. Mother and child are both doing well.

A Pioneer Gone.

John Twaddle of Franktown, familiarly known as Uncle Johnny Twaddle, died this morning at Franktown after an illness of 8 or 9 days. He was a pioneer of Nevada, having come from Salt Lake with the Mormons, who settled in Franktown. He will be buried there on Tuesday at two o'clock.

A Woman Commits Suicide by Hanging.

Mrs. Ann Barry committed suicide by hanging herself in a shed at Petaluma yesterday.

A Case for Mr. Keys.

W. Doan, Esq., has recently been appointed postmaster of the town of Boca, Cal. Mr. Doan is a keen and vigilant officer of the republic, and has joined hands with the great and good ex-Confederate United States postmaster general, in the correction of abuses. One of the reforms in the delivery department of the Boca post-office has made a few unreasonable persons mad, and they have made some talk. It seems that a man at Prosser Creek who gets his mail through the Boca postoffice, put up a box outside the door in order that his messenger could get his mail at six o'clock in the morning, an hour at which no sane man could expect a Government official to be on duty. This unreasonable and fraudulent man no sooner got his box built, painted, and secured with lock and key, than he requested the P. M. to put another Prosser Creek gentleman's mail into his box. This the P. M. did, and at the same time sent a bill to each of them for a quarterly box rent in advance at the usual rate. To this they demur, and the P. M. is not yet. It is only simple justice to Mr. Doan to say that he is firm and unyielding and insists that the Government shall not suffer this loss.

Back to Reno.

Dr. Johnson has returned to Reno and to health. He suffered constantly during his stay on the Comstock and immediately improved when he came into Carson or Truckee valley. The Doctor will remain here and solicit a share of patronage. His card will be found elsewhere.

The "Bulletin" Free Seed Distribution for 1920.

Arrangements have been perfected for a free seed distribution among the subscribers of the "Bulletin" of several kinds of rare and valuable trees, vegetables and flower seeds. Great care has been taken to choose varieties that have been tested sufficiently in this country or elsewhere, to prove their value for the Pacific Coast, and such as are not readily obtained through ordinary channels. The object has also been kept constantly in view of obtaining such varieties as would prove of benefit to our subscribers, but at the same time to the whole coast. Some of the more valuable of the list have not yet found their way into the catalogues of American seedsmen, and are not obtainable in this country. Several varieties have been ordered from England, France and Japan at large expense, and the actual retail value of the seeds to be presented to each subscriber will about equal the subscription price of this paper. The distribution will be made during the ensuing winter, and will commence as soon as the last shipment arrives from Europe. There will be delay in the arrival of some of those from France on account of the necessity, in order to obtain perfectly fresh seeds, of waiting for the ripening of the crop of the present season. As soon as possible the date for commencing the distribution will be announced with full particulars through these columns, and in the meantime a description of each variety, accompanied in most cases by an illustration, will be published, and each subscriber will be able to judge of the adaptability of the different kinds to his locality. In view of the seed distribution and the fact that the Reno Weekly GAZETTE, the Friday's "Bulletin" and the Weekly "Bulletin," are all given for $3, this is the greatest inducement to subscribe ever offered on the Pacific Coast. nev10-1mo
